

Rebecca Caudill Award Nominees for 2018

Rebecca Caudill Ayars (1899-1985) was an American author of children's literature with more than twenty books published. The Rebecca Caudill Award is an Illinois award given to an outstanding book for children in grades 4–8. Books are nominated for the award by children in those grades and a list of 20 nominees is made available to elementary and middle schools as well as libraries in March every year. Kids read books from the list of nominees and then vote for their favorite book in February of the following year, usually through their school libraries.
